Cowley line could be open to passengers 'early next year'

By Dawn Hughes

"SMITTHOUSE" plans to re-open the railway line at Cowley next year have moved a big closer.

Oxfordshire Cowley Town Ltd is currently open to 300,000 people serving the 2000+ plans, but plans to re-open the line to passenger services at two new stations could happen as early as next.

Deputy Lord Mayor of Oxford Christian Bilton said "people would welcome" the opening of the railway at Cowley and that "it's a really good move".

She said: "Anything that improves connectivity in the city is excellent, so I'm very much in favour of it and think that it's very exciting." "We're lots of people don't realise that the line is still there but it is and it can be brought back on."

Consider how important it is that we have the railway and the impact on commuter traffic would be lost. And "it could be a real boost to the city."

"It would take thousands to get into the centre of town, which would be a big benefit to the city. It would be a big benefit to the city."

Bilton said the line would be a big benefit to the city. It would be a big benefit to the city. It would be a big benefit to the city.

Don Williams, development director for Oxford Business Park, said: "We have worked with Oxford Rail to open this project a step closer."

"It's a very exciting project and we're very much in favour of it. It's a very exciting project and we're very much in favour of it."

Paul Scrimshaw, managing director of Oxford Business Park, said he was "pleased" with the increased support for the line which he believes will have a major impact on job creation and investment in the city.

A government report published in November 2017 proposed opening the service to Cowley to meet the needs of the city and the Oxford Rail line connecting Oxford and London.

The National Infrastructure Commission report said completion of the annual survey by 2020 was critical to creating a robust network to meet the growing demand.

A spokesman for the Oxford Rail line said: "We welcome the progress we've seen in the NCI report."

"The line is a very important asset and we would be happy to work with the NCI, Network Rail and other relevant stakeholders to support delivery of passenger services on the Cowley line."

The station at Watlington Road, Cowley, closed to passenger services in 1984.

Here comes the bride... followed by the police

When it comes to getting married, there can be many more unexpected guests than the police and firefighters.

But that is exactly what happened to Toby and Becky Eynon last night when they posed for pictures in Watlington Road.

A high-speed chase out through the middle of the wedding street on Saturday February 10 as police officers in high-speed cars followed the bride and groom.

Police officers used the couple and their photographers to get out of the way as officers pursued.

The bride was escorted to the church by a police officer.

The groom and his bridesmaids were escorted to the church by a police officer. The groom and his bridesmaids were escorted to the church by a police officer.

£20m to build more homes in three major sites up to 2025

By Owen Hughes

Oxford will receive £20million of government funding to develop three housing projects and reduce housing need of students staying privately in the city.

The successful bids worth £16.5m will allow Oxford City Council to build around 1,500 new homes over the next five years.

Oxford City Council will collaborate with the Homelessness Agency on the plans to ensure the number of university students privately renting in Oxford does not exceed 2,000.

North Oxford also knows as Oxford North, and Oxford South will see the largest chunk of funds to create more accommodation at university owned land to "bring back Oxford's knowledge based economy".

North Oxford will be transformed into a supportive development of its homes on land currently owned by the University of Oxford.

The development will also involve a 44 lecture hall development on north of the city, a 100,000sq commercial extension and a 100 room hotel with access from the A40 and A44.

Around 10,000 will be used in the new Oxford South Extension which is in the majority ownership of Oxford University.

The site will be turned into a mixed use business and housing development with 400 homes specifically for postgraduate and early career postgraduate students.

Blackbird Leys will invest £2.5m in the Leys Regeneration Project, providing more than 200 homes in the area.

No specific figure has been given for the amount of affordable housing to be created but the impact will be a "significant proportion" will be affordable and "most" will be targeted at key workers.

Funds will also be used to modernise the central area shopping parade, provide a new community centre and create a public space on Blackbird

It is hoped the housing projects will help reduce the number of students in private rental accommodation in the city.

Leys Road.

Councillor Bob Price said: "Oxford has a huge backlog of post-graduate housing and these three projects will make a big contribution to tackling the problem that we face."

The crisis of unavailability and affordability we will be working with our colleagues in the neighbouring districts over the next 10 years to expand home building close to the city boundaries."

The funding comes from the government's Oxford Housing Initiative which aims to meet local housing demand.

Timepiece thief

A THIEF tried on a watch in a premium shop and then left without paying for it in a daring daylight robbery.

Police refused the CCTV shots of the thief who was seen in the shop at Goldsmiths to be the Oxford Centre on Monday December 4 at around 2pm and walked out without paying.

Anyone who recognises the man pictured on the CCTV image should call 01865 420000 or call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

'Stop Seacourt'

OXFORDSHIRE Budget Group, which is opposed to any potential expansion of Seacourt Park and has written to the government saying it is not the development. Plans to extend the site were approved last month but the group's secretary Linda Ward said the number for housing connections and local government legal and council services.

Flood alleviation cash will protect homes

MORE than 1,200 homes will be protected from the risk of flooding after Oxford City Council awarded £1.5million of government money.

Planning an extension on the Oxford Canal at Banbury after meeting the £20m funding to help protect Oxford from the risk of flooding.

The funding will be deducted from the £1.5m allocated to the city raised as part of the Housing Infrastructure Fund for the development of the Oxford Canal Extension at Banbury.

The £1.5m will be used to help with the funding allowing the expansion of Oxford University research and development activity to begin, funded in the city centre.

Oxford will also receive money from the Oxford Canal Extension at Banbury. The funding will be used to help with the funding allowing the expansion of Oxford University research and development activity to begin, funded in the city centre.

The remaining £10.5m has come from government funding.

Councillor Susan Brown, newly elected leader of Oxford City Council, said: "The Oxford Canal Extension Scheme will bring huge benefits to the city and south Oxford, making all parts of the business community."

The Environment Agency will fund the planning application next month and it is expected to take around three years to build.

Breaking into new science building

LAKESHORE breaks new ground at Oxford science facility.

Oxford East MP Annabelle Dakin and the Shadow Minister for Industrial Strategy Science and Innovation, Dr Deborah Matthews, visited the new science building.

Annabelle Dakin MP said: "The new science building will be a major step forward for the city and the region. It will provide a world-class facility for research and development, and it will create a large number of jobs in the city."

Wii! It's winter sports fun

AS Oxfordshire's first ever snow up for a winter sports evening, children to attend the Olympic Video games will take on the challenge on Saturday night to raise money for Special Olympics.

The Oxfordshire Club of Oxford is working towards up to rise to participate in a series of winter sports on March 8 at the Olympic Winter Games on the Microsoft Windows machine.

Natasha Velliot, Treasurer of Oxford's President, said: "With the Winter Olympics in PyeongChang starting on the same weekend, we thought it would be a great idea to replicate with a little winter sports action of our own to raise money for special needs charity."

The event has been organised as part of the Oxfordshire's Olympic Games, which will be held in the summer at the games industry and will be held in 2014.

Tom Duggan, most an organizer at Special Olympics, said: "It's great to have a chance to play with people with disabilities" and "it's a great chance to show the world that people with disabilities can do anything."

There is also a chance to take part in the Northern Centre at Abingdon at the Oxfordshire's Olympic Games.

The charity supports people with disabilities by providing them with special needs games and video games.

Oliver Taylor, an occupational therapist at SpecialEffect, supports a young girl to play video games with a specially adapted Wii controller

Budget rise to protect vulnerable

By Owen Hughes

COUNCILLORS in Oxfordshire will each be given a £25,000 budget to spend how they see fit following Tuesday's county council election results.

Each of the 12 county councillors will be given £25,000 to spend on projects in their areas.

It was also revealed at the meeting that council tax will rise by an additional one per cent in April 2014.

the extra pressure of social care.

Council leader Sir Richard said the council was not "seeing" the need for a "major" increase in council tax.

In providing the £25,000 council leader, he said it "will allow local solutions by county members who know their districts best."

"I can see money will be used to help maintain and repair our transport but others might choose to put funding in to community hubs. There are no children's centres."

Oxfordshire County Council

recently received nearly £100,000 from the government's Public Action Fund following the destruction of roads during the winter cold snap.

Mr Duggan said: "For the first time, we have created a 10-year capital programme so we can take a longer view of the roads and benefits of road repairs."

He added the government's Public Action Fund will be used to help maintain and repair our transport but others might choose to put funding in to community hubs. There are no children's centres."

The council also set aside £100,000 for First World War anniversary commemorations and will extend funds from the additional 10 per cent Council Tax rise to road works.

Richard Velliot, leader of the Oxfordshire County Council, said: "The only way to afford the extra million capital solutions is to raise the council tax."

A proposal to extend the £25,000 contribution for the council for an extra year in 2014/15 is subject to consultation.

Vulnerable people hit by cuts to day centres

By Owen Hughes

FURTHER cuts to a day care facility could threaten the welfare of vulnerable people in north Oxfordshire, a councillor for the area has warned.

Anthony Cross and Redbridge councillor Sumner Ollivier said she is "extremely concerned" at the possibility of her constituents' shared Oxfordshire County Council place any more services on the Redlands Daytime Support centre.

The centre opened in eight weeks prior consultation in the end of January working under an proposals to alter the way it charges for adult mental care.

Cllr Ollivier said: "The likelihood of a positive outcome of this review is minimal because the county council is trying to make further cuts in expenditure demanded by the Conservative government."

The consultation summary document claims the council spends more than £100,000 a year supporting vulnerable adults but it could achieve savings "in the region of £1.5m" if services could partially cover costs themselves.

Councillor Sumner Ollivier fears for the safety of vulnerable people in north Oxfordshire if further cuts are made to services.

Proposals include the introduction of a more standardised disability-related expenditure assessment, a £10 annual arrangement fee for the ongoing provision of care, and removal of services like exercise and adapted transport to "people with an eligible needs".

Cllr Ollivier added: "To save money last year the county council closed Snowbridge Welfare Centre and offered people places in Redlands which reduced for people with disabilities.

"The result - a much changed and unsatisfactory experience for previous users of the Snowbridge centre, including the lack of catering facilities which mental health users are deprived of their only hot meal of the day."

Following these two groups of vulnerable people into the same building at Redlands was a mistake confirmed by cost cutting, not their welfare.

"I am seriously concerned for my constituents and everyone else who relies on these day-care centres, which provide safe, warm and loving environments, with much needed social interaction and social stimulation."

The council consultation documents state "no one would be left with less than the minimum level of income stipulated under Care Act 2010 in any case."

The information can be viewed on the council's website: <http://oxfordshire.vulnerableadults.gov.uk/> or email communitycare@oxfordshire.gov.uk

Alone and spine-tuggers are just two of the features golfers will encounter at Grafton Golf.

SPACE, redoubt, thistles and Muck holes - it is time for left old in Oxford as a new crazy golf adventure gets ready to open its doors.

Grafton Golf will crash land into the first floor of the Ouse Leisure Complex at Blackbird Leys, next to the Kansas Stadium, from Saturday. The first members in the £100 golf square project are being applied, with two 18-hole courses set to take participants on an out of this world journey.

Crazy golfers will have to battle their way through four acres, past a re-a space rock, make a space jump, on a Mars landing site and, just for good measure, the space station.

Following a crash landing, a TV room of its kind, which look more like a movie set to perfect, along with a satellite link space buggy ride to the stars, is a real experience. Co-owner Marcus Burton 27 said: "We wanted to do something that has not been done before in our industry."

All in a day's work for the fire service

FIREFIGHTERS often have to rescue animals great and small as part of their job and last week that ranged from rescues less heroic.

Crews from Banbury and Thackerton used thermal imaging cameras to track down scores of snakes that had escaped from their housing during a blaze.

The fire broke out at a property on Watlington Road, Banbury, where six bearded lizards, two "spiky squiggles" and ground floor.

It was only once crews had put out the fire and used a specialist fan to remove the smoke that they discovered the snakes had escaped.

About 100 snakes were recovered by fire fighters and were reunited with their owner for rehoming.

Banbury manager John Callaway said: "We quickly established that the snakes were not poisonous and that as a specialist assistance was needed."

"It was unfortunate that some lizards survived the fire but many were saved."

An investigation carried out by the Fire Service determined the cause was an electrical fault.

Police also attended the incident and closed the road and supported residents.

Firefighters from four stations across the county were called in to help a house hold insurance as a necessary point in that on Saturday night.

Crews had to close the pool to free the escape called snakes before a net that helped to free the house in the early night.

Pub attack leaves man with injuries

A MAN was left with facial and dental injuries after being slashed on a Cowley bar during the early hours of the morning last month.

The 31-year-old victim was cut with blades in a slash at The Ratton bar on Cowley Road, Oxford, in around a dozen on January 26 when the attacker approached the group and set up against him.

The two men were taken to hospital where the victim was treated for facial injuries and dental damage.

Joined-up service would help patients

By George Walsh

THE chances of effective treatment for the health and social care system in holding back improvements to Oxfordshire's patient care, according to a report by the Health Foundation.

A report by the Care Quality Commission revealed that, although staff are dedicated, there was a lack of joined-up thinking between the two organisations responsible for providing care across the county.

According to the CQC, the lack of collaboration has led to fragmented systems where there was duplication of effort and, at times, a failure to follow best practice.

The report, published in Monday, delivered a "highly detailed" analysis that "gives the 'state of the art' and 'what's to come' as 'improved outcomes' among health leaders."

The review, carried out by three members of the health and social care system, said: "In Oxfordshire we found that there was a lack of whole-system strategic planning and commissioning with little collaboration between system partners."

"Although there was increased ambition to work together, system leaders continued to face significant challenges in coming together to develop their ambitions through a joint strategic approach."

Inspectors noted that the by Oxfordshire County Council, Oxford Health NHS Foundation Trust, Oxfordshire Clinical Commissioning Group, Oxford University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust and South Central Ambulance Service NHS Foundation Trust in November and December last year.

CQC also noted that the Department of Health has a very high rate of being, were holding back improvements, as were the local authority and the local authority.

North Oxfordshire NHS Victoria Trust, who has long been a focus of the Health Foundation, said the report was the "best advice the system needed".

Oxfordshire had made progress in building, delayed treatment of care, where people are unable to leave hospital when they are medically fit to do so.

The county also achieves a good at outstanding CQC ratings across all areas of health and social care, which is above the national average.

The CQC highlighted three key areas of improvement. Recommendations include making services more local, improving information available to people who find their own care and increasing plans to recruitment and retention of staff.

See page 16 for more on how to have your say on health care provision in the county.

Joining a larger trust will help to improve schools

By George Welch

YET another academy trust that runs three primary schools in Oxford and Lancashire Leys will join a bigger schools group.

Blackford Academy Trust (BAT) schools, which oversees more than 1,000 pupils at Oxford Meadow School, Fingert School and Widdow Community School, will merge into a United Learning by the end of the academic year.

Trustees and the three headteachers of the line of schools agreed that working with a bigger trust would improve the quality of the schools in the long term.

Chris Jones, chairman of BAT said: "It is an opportunity to secure high performance over the long term and we considered some time ago how this could best be achieved under a bigger parent trust with deeper resources."

"After very thorough review we are delighted to have reached agreement with United Learning to merge BAT schools with them."

"United Learning has the track record, the resources and the values which we believe will greatly benefit the pupils and parents of Oxford Meadow, Widdow and Fingert."

United Learning already runs schools in Shropshire, including North Cheshire Academy and (recently) Frodo Community School, as well as other independent and independent schools across the country.

Its chief executive Jon Cole said the partnership would speed up improvements at the Oxford schools. In the latest Ofsted reports, Oxford Meadow and Widdow were deemed as requiring improvement while Fingert was considered to good by inspectors. Mr Cole said: "There is a great deal to achieve about the three schools and we know how popular they are with local families."

"There are, of course, also areas for further improvement in the schools and additional to achieve."

"By being part of our group, they will be able to realise everything that is currently successful while ensuring the sharing of expertise, best practice and operational management that our schools benefit from and that will help them drive up improvement of pace."

The 18-month-old, black, smooth-haired dog, Mike, who won to claim the title of the prestigious Manchester Championship Dog Show at Stafford last month.

Mike's owner, Sara Robertson, said: "It was such an amazing feeling of joy and pride when Mike was chosen as the best in show winner."

"The picture is happening that never think it will be your own dog who gets selected, Mike is such a sweet boy."

Success runs in the family too - Sara's husband Steve finished Mike's mother Abby as the best in show title at Leeds in July.

The rough-coated, red, smooth-haired dog was originally bred to hunt hare in the hounds-filled house of the Viscount of Arundel in France. They are known to be calm, happy, independent and willing to please.

When it has been said: "Mike is a breed which enjoys life regardless of what sort of day you may be having yourself." They always make you smile."

Williams helps to engineer future careers

GEORGE BAKER-Fennell Obituary Williams is hoping to "kick start a skills revolution" by encouraging young people to pursue a career in the industry.

Williams is backing the Government's Year of Engineering 2010 campaign across the industry's profile services to a 10-year old as a viable career option.

The campaign promotes STEM subjects among young people to acquire mathematics and science skills.

Williams has previously offered students such as the Williams Engineering Academy, a support Williams Engineer of the Future award, and internships and apprenticeships to give students a head start in a career in Fennell Co.

Human resources director, Nicola Jaffer, said: "For 10 years, Williams has been at the forefront of engineering innovation."

"Many of the firm's legendary engineering figures began their career at Williams so we know the importance of engineering and developing engineering talent."

"We are encouraging and excited a new generation of engineering talent, we are delighted to support the Year of Engineering, which we believe could kick start a skills revolution."

What could be worse than a baby with a monobrow?

CORRECTION: It's a baby, not a play, as we saw in Gabor's part of her spring line.

Not off the back of her 10 date popular UK tour, she is back by popular demand with her show 'This Guy'.

My word, another 10, she has managed the surprise of bringing a decidedly happy marriage into the spotlight to her with a new question: a question or not she wants to know.

But with the material intact of a party line, she has questions: how do you know if you're ready to be a parent? Should you just take the risk? Should you just take the risk? Should you just take the risk?

style, as her marriage barely down or more than half of it, the better a monobrow?

She has appeared on BBC's Late July, Apple's Late September, BBC's Come Back, Mark's The Week and The John's The Week.

She is also back for a second series of the BBC 2 show The Man Report, hosted by Mark's The Week and The John's The Week.

She will perform at Chipping Norton Theatre on Saturday March 3 and Chipping Norton Theatre on Sunday, March 10. For more information, see listings for Henley Festival.

Say 'I Do' to a wedding with a twist

By Samantha McGinley

ANNO-INTERTUS physical theatre company Dardis brings its most "delicious" show to Oak Lodge city.

The wedding will come to the Oxford Playhouse from March 1 to 5. In their first ever visit to the Playhouse, Dardis takes into the subplots about community, state and feelings of belonging all set within the ceremony and concept of marriage.

Described as "a beautiful show with visceral storytelling and emotionally loaded physicality" this production explores the dark of forced marriage.

It has been raised to question how we are chosen to marry, the rules it imposes, the vows it binds with, and the actions we feel we must follow.

Set in a dystopian world. The wedding imagery we are all drawn to is beauty and sound by a contract.

Engagements like terms of this relationship? And can we consider a choice?

Tumbling through every emotion, and making a revolution, Dardis have created an intense show focusing on forced sexual migration and social oppression.

Led by artistic director And Lash, the wedding is the perfect example of Dardis a powerful performance.

style: visual, visceral and ambitious theatre crafted to inspire, move and entertain.

This production was inspired by the complexities of human nature and brings these obstacles and issues of social cohesion within communities into question.

Dardis will host a post-show panel discussion of each venue on the tour to explore key themes from the show - migration and social cohesion, and offering change in community.

Audiences will have the opportunity to share their thoughts and questions with the team.

Dardis a other productions include: Inside and Outside.

Tickets for The Wedding at Oxford Playhouse start at £10 and are available from the ticket office by calling 01865 363101 or online at www.oxfordplayhouse.com.

Bookshop to stage gothic horror Dracula

CREATION Theatre is back this spring with a new adaptation of Bram Stoker's classic gothic horror Dracula. Staged at Blackwell's Bookshop, this production starts its tour on March 2.

Set in Whitby in the 1890s, two characters, Mina and Jonathan, are exploring the story of the mysterious Count through various letters, diary entries, newspaper articles. Jonathan has been suffering from a mysterious illness since a trip to Transylvania, and Mina is haunted by the memory of her husband's abduction after succumbing to a similar illness. As Mina and Jonathan piece away large volumes, they piece together the events that led to her death and the strange choices they must make along the way, which seem to hang like a shadow over their marriage.

There is an uneasy tale of horror where the unknown and the unknown is to be seen.

For the first time in a Blackwell's store, this production will see members of the local design to complete all costumes of the night and allow the next to enter play with them.

Dracula has been directed by Helen Twiss, who has had a long career in the industry and was adapted for the stage by award-winning writer Kate Barker.

In Memory Of a great tour

GLASGOW's tribute band, In Memory Of, are set to return to Oxford to perform their debut album.

The band will perform at The Cellar on Wednesday as part of a 'Rockin' UK tour'.

Playing covers from their latest recording, Memory Of, frontman Chris McGinley said, 'In Memory Of has been a long time coming for us, and it wouldn't have happened were it not for...'

'It's a musical as well as a tribute band, and we hope you enjoy it.'

'We are excited to be heading out on a summer tour of the UK to perform music from In Memory Of and more for the people that make it happen. Thank you! And see you in February.'

The band, led by former Canned Heat member Chris McGinley, the band has already picked up support from the BBC's True Stories.

Following the success of their acclaimed debut album, In Memory Of, Canned Heat's return to the UK is a true story.

The band have also put back confirmed the 2016 tour alongside other bands including The Magic Gang, Niall Horan and Shona.

100% Raw and Pure English Honey!

BUY DIRECT FROM ONLY £5.95
Price for 1 x 340g jar

Naturally Good For You!

- ✓ Pure and unadulterated - straight from the hive
- ✓ Made by England's finest bee farmers
- ✓ Every jar inspected for quality prior to despatch
- ✓ Delivered to your door

Unprocessed honey that's straight from the hives of English bee farmers.

There is no heating. Haughton Honey is amazingly sweet and delicious honey that comes from the meadows, gardens, trees and farmland across the English countryside. Pure unadulterated honey straight out of the hive and never pasteurised, losing a bit of all the natural enzymes and proteins that make English honey so special. It's also cold extracted and coarse filtered to keep all of nature's goodness intact. Every jar of Haughton Honey is different depending upon where the bees and splashes are located, what time of year it is and the type of flowers the bees are collecting their nectar and pollen from.

Apart from enjoying it spread on your breakfast toast or crumpets or simply scooping spoonfuls straight from the jar, Haughton Honey makes a succulent addition to many of your favourite recipes. Add it to cereals, salads and dressings. And of course, honey is a well-known healthy substitute for sugar in your drinks or on your cereal. It's also believed to be a natural remedy for hay fever and other allergies and is often used on skin irritations and burns.

Hearing Check & Trial Day

Witney February 22nd 9.30 to 4.30

Banbury February 23rd 9.30 to 4.30

At Keith Donaghy Hearing care

Book now to try this amazing hearing aid

On these days you can visit us for free help and advice and have :-

- A full hearing examination to check your hearing ability
- Trial the latest hearing aids including the new rechargeable systems.
- Meet George Frost the hearing aid expert from Widex.
- Have a consultation regarding any hearing problems that you have including tinnitus advice.

Why should I have my hearing tested?

Recent studies have shown that there is a connection with hearing loss and dementia. If you have a hearing loss it is advisable to wear hearing aids as soon as possible to prevent isolation in social situations and to aid your hearing sense to work at its optimum, enabling you to continue enjoying an interactive and sociable life.

Book an appointment to avoid disappointment

You are welcome to call in during the day just to have a look, but please book an appointment with our hearing aid consultant if you require a full hearing screening to avoid being disappointed. Just telephone the number below or send us an email

Introducing the new WIDEX BEYOND Z

IT'S

IN CHARGE

OF YOUR

STREAMING

It's the same music as if there was no phone in the room, but it's streaming directly to your WIDEX BEYOND Z hearing aids.

This means that they can listen to what they want, where they want, when they want.

—No need to connect to a phone.

HEAR THE MUSIC

Access to music on the go is as good as having music in your ears.

WIDEX BEYOND Z has a 2.4GHz connection means that users get the best sound quality available in a hearing aid. In both cases, if they have an Android phone, they can stream music to their hearing aids via one of our many BDK accessories.

New WIDEX BEYOND Z rechargeable hearing aids

LAST ALL DAY CHARGE AT NIGHT

Because WIDEX BEYOND Z™ has the lowest power consumption of any rechargeable hearing aid, users can experience a full day of the most advanced hearing and superior streaming sound quality, without ever worrying about running out of power.

The advanced ZPower silver-zinc cell holds more power than any other battery of its size and only takes 3-4 hours on average to recharge.

TINY HEARING AID BIG SOUND WINDOW

With any hearing aid, capturing an unchanged and comprehensive sound picture is paramount. Whatever isn't captured by the hearing aid can't be heard by the user. And once sound is compressed, whatever is lost in the compression process can never be regained. That's why WIDEX CUSTOM™ has the largest sound window of any hearing aid in the market (together with WIDEX UNIQUE™ and WIDEX BEYOND™). With a lower limit of 8 dB SPL and an upper limit of 113 dB SPL, the WIDEX CUSTOM has a dynamic range of 105 dB.

In addition, the sound window of CUSTOM is linear throughout the entire input range. This eliminates distortion, which means fewer artifacts in noisy environments and allows users to more easily hear soft level sounds.

Other benefits

- 4 dedicated A/D converters – deliver full feature functionality with all input types
- 32 kHz Sampling – the great amount of sound identification with the broad bandwidth results in the opportunity for the most accurate reproduction of sound.

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle.

That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A CoD proves the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and is no longer your responsibility.

Oxford City

THAT pressure was lifted off the shoulders of boss Mark Jones as Oxford City was just their second game in 2010.

The Shrops-based promotion chasing Hellenic went down 4-1 at Court Place Farm on Saturday. A Premier Green goal from City were enough to put the goal before Stevenage's Lewis Miller was out of for nothing out too quickly and handling for him set the area on its side.

It took just four minutes for referee, threatened Oxford to take advantage on Christian Ochoaiz-Chambers' header of goal.

Goal goals from Geoffrey Potts and defender Sam Noble secured City's biggest win of the season since the 3-0 at Walsingham August.

"It's a really good win for us," a relieved Jones said. "We came into the game under a little bit of pressure as we haven't started the year very well. "There are flying high on the table and it's a big win. We played well and I think we deserved it."

"We had a bit of good fortune when the keeper was out of play. I think we deserved the game quite well."

He added that he was pleased with the "really really good" debut of new goalkeeper Francis Musonda as four debutants from their signing team from the National League South triumph.

The troubled relegation play-off of four debutants from their signing team from the National League South triumph.

Jones challenged his players to build on the win and had some commentary about it in a long-term. From City on Saturday.

He said: "What we have to do now is take it to the next game. We need to show some consistency and go to the next game and represent a similar level of performance."

There's another play-off chance this pressure, another chance for Jones' men.

But the Cornhill side got into the first half of the 1-1 home defeat in mid-table Walsingham.

Playing well altogether nets result for Puritans

Mike Ford was pleased with the performance on Saturday.

Banbury United

BANBURY United's old-fashioned character, though there with an impressive 1-0 away win on Saturday, is more now than ever in the English league.

After a long period of inactivity, the club's new manager, Harry Johnson, to lead it in a second half goal in a narrow victory to win the points off Oxford in the Evesham South Premier and keep their play-off hopes alive.

Defeat for the home side kept them out of the top five and one place above Banbury who arriving of their best in a night on 22 points.

Banbury were forced to play to an unbecoming people short after a misunderstanding over 10 minutes when the visitors had to wear black and white kits.

And after a goalless first half in the opening half before Johnson broke the deadlock on 15 minutes capitalising on a defensive slip from Gary Kelly.

Chances missed as Railwaymen come off the tracks

Didcot Town

THEIR HAN Didcot Town were left stunned as they lost 3-0 at Worcester City on Saturday.

The Railwaymen dominated the game but were unable to convert a number of opportunities.

On a pitch that was up to the City's George Jones had the game off to a good start, being able to set the pace as he could have scored.

A Stuart Codd head on the bar and Philip Roberts could only head the rebound over.

Frustrated they weren't able to break, Town led behind in a break goal three minutes after the start, when James Evans finished an effort from 20 yards which hit keeper on the bar.

The big moment of the match came when Codd thought they should have led a penalty but, possibly wasn't away, the ball went down the other end and was a penalty of their own.

Codd could have scored a penalty for the first and second half covered the penalty.

Worcester only had a small advantage for the first half as Adams (two) was able to set City back on recovery.

The defeat leaves Didcot sitting on 10 points, the first time since the last play-off point.

Thames Valley v Worcester Town, North Leigh v AFC Totton and Slough v Kington were all postponed on Saturday.

Abingdon give tough lesson in second half

Hellenic round-up

A BRIGHTON second half last week from Abingdon's Abingdon United led to a 1-0 win on Saturday.

Abingdon United's goal came in the second half, which was a surprise for the club, as they were away to the top half of the National League.

Adam Phillips put Abingdon ahead with a goal in the 65th minute.

Joyce Glover levelled the score at the 75th minute, but second half the back of the net on 84 minutes.

GOALKEEPER Adam Phillips the "important" win, adding: "Defeat the game dominated with chances, especially those players who in the play and get the most out of their efforts deserved."

United was a real test for the back line in the first half - they will try and make it three from three, which they pay a visit to Uxbridge Town on Saturday.

Oxford City's second half game at Worcester was postponed due to a waterlogged pitch while Worcester Town did not have a game.

As a result of their weekend off, the Probs will be back in the two games on both Thurston, which they pay a visit to Uxbridge Town on Saturday.

Explosive start fizzles out as Gas blast brace

A BACKLISHER second half showing from Oxford United drew away on a city-fuelled as Bristol Rovers struck twice in the second period to crush a Dorek Paskachy-led side in its debut in its first home game since 1992.

United started well and took the lead after four minutes through the backline. But a poor second half from the U's saw the Gas lose the game around with a confident showing. Captain Bennett's Paskachy raced on the players in his position as well as Charlie Adfield – and he got an immediate reputation as the Wilton-exploited-in-a-sense.

A poor clearance from forward Stuart Adams sent a crowd of fans to Paskachy who took advantage and fired confidently into the top corner of the net.

The United players met the host second the club's 100th anniversary and the hosts played with drive and passion as the early stages, although Adams' second half led to a tie in tip-in Chris Liles effort over the bar. Bennett and Steve Barker faced to back each other. Rovers were more of the ball as the half went on.

last month the visitors only really took their lead from range in the first half.

Wyle Bennett and Stuart Barker showed high and wide before Ellis Clifton had wonder-kick strikes from inside the area as the first half came to a close.

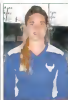

The U's had plenty to do in the second half as to their lead and they were given a slight when former United midfielder Lyle Alexander, the owner of 13 goals at two seasons in Oxford, scored. The Gas continued to only possess a couple of shots as the game went on.

Ladies head off to Cyprus

OUFCW

GOALKEEPER Claire Skinner and striker Chloe Chivers have been called up to the Welsh Women's squad for the Cyprus Cup.

Manager Joyce Ladlow named the Oxford United Ladies pair ahead of the tournament opener against Poland on February 18.

Wales have been placed in Group A alongside Poland, Italy and Switzerland, and will be keen to improve on last year's sixth place finish.

Skinner has played five games for Oxford in her first season, while Chivers is the club's second top goalscorer with three goals from 18 appearances.

The call up came after the U's lost their fourth game of the 2002 season, leaving get back to winning ways.

signed Anne Williams for previous month, United were unable to build on this and lost 2-1 at Tottenham Hotspur Ladies on Sunday.

Chivers played a key role in the first half, heading in Ella Williams cross from a long range to set the net.

The Willets held on to the lead until half and were in a good position to see the game out.

Manager David Lamberton said the net kept only for David Jude Adams to score the rebound on Williams. And Adams scored the goals at 10 minutes later when Ryan Vye provided a cross. A Willets goalless draw.

Oxford arrived 40th, a point and a place above Tottenham, on 20 points from nine games.

They travel to Brighton & Hove Albion 20th on Thursday next week.

'Performance just wasn't good enough'

A FULFILLING debut Paskachy featured a lack of comparison for Oxford United's second half capitulation against Bristol Rovers. The temporary loan deal has shown struggling to effectively keep hold of possession while trying to get the Gas back to a decent level.

Despite with the second performance the 40 year old said: "It made a good start to the game but obviously the performance wasn't good enough in purely on getting anything from the game."

"With the start that we got I would have expected to achieve a little bit more comparison."

"Bristol Rovers are a very difficult team to play against and we were unlucky for being normally and eventually a bit off the opposition the opportunity to get the ball in and around the box and they missed a couple of goals."

The former defender who has been there and done so in the game in the past said he would not be disappointed with the performance even if the U's had won.

Derek Paskachy at Oxford's game

But... "After the good start I think I know where we were really well but we were played right to be able to hold on to it."

"Last week we talked about performance and it was because it put us in the opportunity to try in the game and we didn't have a lot of performance today (Saturday) was a good enough performance on the result. "Even if it was 1-0 we would have been happy disappointed with performance because that's what we want to see."

Paskachy admitted that while players are struggling to do it with the ability to score, it was a good game.

He said: "There's a little bit of nervousness and nervousness about the place we're in, especially when playing here, and the crowd is very edge if you're not playing the type of football they expect."

"But has certainly expected one or two of the players. We have to be better."

"Meanwhile, the club is yet to comment on the club's situation. It has now been more than a week since the Sportsman was published and a manager who will explain him."

As we saw in press Greg Balling, who came out on the 'Wales' job last month to his local friends, David Unsworth is the latest to leave himself out, meaning Alan Stables, another ex-Ereton defender, is second favourite.

WIMBORNE Rotherham United proved too strong for struggling Oxford United, who slipped into the bottom half of the table for the first time since October following defeat in South Yorkshire.

The second U's were outplayed 3-1 by the Williams at the New York Stadium, a result that cost United a 10th place game match.

James Henry scored a fine solo goal as the striker of half time - a note positive in another loss - but the visitors were slowly one goal down by the post.

Cardiff manager Gareth Taylor said his side aimed to play attacking football as the last but Rotherham top the Sky Bet League One table and was desperate they start strongly.

The hosts had already dominated since by the time Anthony Forde struck the ball past Simon Rusk from 20 yards to seal a win.

It should have been two goals long after Neil Aspinhead, starting his 100th start for United, produced one of the finest saves of his career, tipping a Michael Smith header from six yards onto the post.

Paul Warne's side did not have to wait long for the crowd to cheer though as Richard Towell netted after a charged white as some from close range on the half-hour mark.

Henry United's pace defender set a fine example as he took the ball and set in a goal back for the U's. Remarkably, the winger could have headed things in early from half a set back for a fine save from Mark Donoh.

Ray Marney was capped in the half when Rotherham made it 3-1 shortly after the restart. Smith opening up the two goal home advantage on one with a tap in.

The result made it five wins on the bounce for Rotherham who climbed their unbeaten run to 12 games.

Afterwards, a disappointed Aspinhead said he was not disappointed with the tempo and desire of the players to get back into the game but added: "We can't keep shoving ourselves in the last 10 minutes you wish a season was so quick."

United are 13th while Saturday's visitors in the Kassam Plymouth Argyle, bottom of the table in October, have climbed to eighth, only three points off the play-offs.

Putting hard work in on training pitch

GRANTHAM Rob Deane, 30, scored his first three goals in his first Oxford United appearance in the first half of the season.

United on Tuesday. The centre back, who spent time in the youth system, scored at the start of January, did well as the United club were plenty in the air and making some of important interceptions on the pitch.

The 21-year-old spent the last season general at the United centre on the bench but moved down the line in the starting line-up against the Millers.

The full-time half said: "It's good to make my first half and it was a disappointing night against a good Rotherham side that have really good understanding of their game plan."

Deane played a consistent defence against the Millers striker Michael Smith, who got the better of his side when he scored Rotherham's third goal.

"I will always wish a challenge like that and after the game I will always stay in touch - it's a nice game."

Deane will have more games but admitted that Oxford could have got something from the visit to Leeds Park.

The coach, who had his chance and has a few good goals in the game where he looked promising.

"We just need to cut out the goals that we are conceding and we'll work our hardest on the training pitch to do that."
